Short and Interesting

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 17.—A spirit medium today appeared to W. J. Burke, free legal aid attorney, for assistance in regaining the spirit of "Little Eva." The medium asserted that for a number of years she had procured advice for her patrons from the spirit of "Little Eva." Recently the spirit failed to appear when called, and finally communicated the information that she had been stolen by a medium at Omaha, Neb., who had a stronger will, the local medium asserted. She requested legal aid to regain possession of the spirit.

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 16.—(By Associated Press)—Upwards of 4000 ukuleles, the "tropical fiddles," that have become as much a part of Hawaii as the moonlight at Waikiki, went up in smoke today, when fire of unknown origin destroyed what is said to be the largest ukulele factory in the world. The loss is estimated at $10,000. John K. Kama, county supervisor and former Democratic candidate for the nomination for delegate to congress, who sometimes is known as the "ukulele king," owned the plant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Shipwrecks have found their place in street car signs here along with baseball games, prize fights, industrial expositions and baby shows. The Market Street Railway company, satisfying itself that the oil tanker Lyman Stewart, recently beached on the ocean shore, after a collision with another vessel, was due for a long stay in her rocky cradle today had a sign, "This car, to the shipwreck," adorning the front of all cars passing the wreck scene.

ASTORIA, Ore., Oct. 17.—Cook house attaches of the Saddle Mountain Logging company's camp served steaks today from a 250-pound bear which they slew Monday with cleavers and clubs when it walked nonchalantly into the kitchen.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 17.—While Thomas Lee Woolwine, Democratic candidate for governor of California, was denouncing the Ku Klux Klan at a public meeting here Monday night a man arose and walking to the front, set a small statue of a robed and hooded klanman down at the speaker's feet. Taking the act as a signal, a crowd of men, estimated at 150, walked from the hall in an orderly manner. There was some hissing, however, after which the candidate continued his speech.

GIRL GIVES UP $100,000 TO GET MARRIED

Would Have Received Fortune Had She Waited Until Aged 30

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Her father's promise of $100,000 if she remained unmarried until she was 30 was an inducement of Josephine Krayl, for six years, but six years remained when she met Paul Taylor White, a music composer of Boston. A message signed "Mrs. Paul Taylor White" announced that Joseph had broken her pact with her father.

PROMISING VIOLINIST. Six years ago Josephine, then 18, was a promising violin student under the tutelage of Ysaye, and her sister, Marie, then 14, was an accomplished pianist. Their father, Bohumir Krayl, himself a noted musician, had great ambitions of careers for his daughters, so great that he exacted the same promise from each—to remain single until 30—when $100,000 each would be their reward.

RULE IS RIGID. The rule was so rigid that no young men were to be entertained in the Krayl home.

Last week Josephine, who had signed contracts for European appearances this winter with various symphony orchestras, said she had an appointment with a dentist and left the Krayl residence. Her message from Boston was the first word her father received since.

He told Marie if she contemplated association with any of the young men of her acquaintance, the rule governing the Krayl parlor would be cancelled.

STINNES CARES FOR NEEDY JOURNALISTS

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—"Down and out" newspaper men, who have been walking the streets of Berlin and other cities in Germany in large numbers in search of jobs, will be beneficiaries of an aid fund of 250,000 marks which Hugo Stinnes, the financier, is promoting.

The high cost of publication has made heavy inroads upon the German press recently, with the result that many editors and reporters have been thrown out of work or placed on short time. Herr Stinnes is owner of the Allgemeine Zeitung.

Herr Stinnes is said to be actuated, primarily through appreciation of the importance of newspaper writers as creative forces which are urgently needed in Germany's rejuvenation.

VLADIVOSTOK LIES AT FEET OF REDS

TOKIO, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Special press dispatches from Vladivostok report that city in imminent danger of invasion by soviet troops. Members of the Vladivostok "white" government have boarded a steamer ready to depart. General Dietrichs, commander of the "white" army, reported to have retreated to the Russo-Chinese border.

OATH ON BIBLE MEANS NAUGHT TO CHINAMAN

But Swearing Upon Freshly Killed Chicken Is Something Else

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Taking a court oath on the Bible means nothing to a Chinese, Judge Alfred J. Talley, presiding in general sessions court at the trial of Tom Yee, charged with the murder in Chinatown last August of Ko Low, Hip Sing Tong, president, has learned.

Noting the countenance of Confucian witnesses during the hearing, Judge Talley said to the interpreter: "How much does this oath really mean to a Chinese?"

MEANS NOTHING. "Absolutely nothing," was the reply of the interpreter, who went on to explain the kind of oath that would mean something to a Chinese.

A live chicken would have to be taken to the courtroom and killed in the presence of the witness about to be sworn. The witness would be required to place his hand on the chicken just before it expired and in that position take the oath.

JAIL STILL LOOMS. "That will hardly do in an American court of justice," Judge Talley said, and then explained with great care that whether the American oath was taken or not, the witness would be required to swear to the truth of his testimony.

CONVICTS GATHER WEEDS FOR LIQUOR

FORT MADISON, Ia., Oct. 17.—State prison authorities investigating the apparent ineffectiveness of the Eighteenth amendment to function in the penitentiary Monday discovered that convicts had invented what to all intents and purposes might be termed a human still.

Gathering certain weeds growing in the prison yards, the prisoners placed them in buckets of water, according to the investigators, and after the connection reached the desired degree of fermentation, the inmates swallowed it, following it up with a chaser consisting of water in which sugar and yeast had been dissolved. The result, the investigations disclosed, was a startling jag that lasted almost indefinitely. The prison yard weeds have been cut.

FARMER BURIED IN WELL IS RESCUED

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—Buried at the bottom of a 46-foot well on a farm near his home, William Fisher, of Bolling Springs, was rescued last Monday night after volunteers worked eight hours to reach him. A ladder above his head saved Fisher from being crushed to death. Standing in water almost to his waist, he was able to talk to his rescuers. Aside from bruises on his head and hands, where he was struck by falling rocks, he was uninjured.

MRS. HALL AND HER BROTHER FACE GRILLING

Authorities Indicate They Are More Hopeful of Solution

NEW CLUES FOUND

Handkerchiefs Near Scene of Crime Help; Woman Is Witness

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall and her eccentric brother, Willie Stevens, were taken to the city hall by Detective Ferd Daily shortly after 11 o'clock today for further examination by authorities investigating the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills.

Contents of letters purported to have been written by Dr. Hall to Mrs. Mills and which have been guarded carefully previously, were said to show beyond a doubt that the factor and slayer were accustomed to meet in De Bussy's lane, near the old Phillips property, where the dead bodies were found.

Authorities indicated they were more hopeful of solving the month-old mystery than at any time previous during the investigation.

PUBLIC HEALTH PROBLEM SEEN IN MOONSHINE

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 17.—The widespread drinking of "moonshine" has become an important public health problem, J. H. Doran, head of the industrial alcohol and chemical division of the federal prohibition commissioner's office, told the pure food and drug section of the American Public Health association in session here today.

Analysis of illicit liquors show that the essential difference between "moonshine" and aged-in-wood whiskey is in the aldehyde content, he said.

EFFECT IS HARMFUL. "The effects of the aldehydes on the human system appear to be very harmful," Mr. Doran declared. "These are eliminated only by fractionalating in an alcohol drum or long ageing in wooden barrels. Many illicit liquors are found to be contaminated with salts of zinc and copper."

"Casual surveys of the press must impress any one with the vicious character of the illicit liquor. Its use is sufficiently widespread to become a matter that vitally concerns the public health."

FROGS AND SNAKES IN MOONSHINE VATS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Word has been received here of a great moonshine raid into the mountains of Breckitt county, Kentucky, in which 10 complete stilleries were destroyed and 200 gallons of still beer in 95 fermenters was poured out. A quantity of the finished product also was discovered.

The stills had been made from gasoline tanks of iron, and this alone would have made the product poisonous, officers said, but they found new horrors in pouring out the still beer which never before have been encountered. Dead frogs, lizards, snakes, a dead pig and a number of other small animals were found in the fermenters. Nine men were arrested in the raid and were placed in jail at Pikeville.

Beat Turnkey With Smuggled Gun; Grab Auto and Hurry Away

Determined Not to Go to Prison for Killing Pal. Herbert Wilson, Former Preacher, Plans and Carries Out Sensational Delivery

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Herbert Wilson, known by police and federal operatives as a "master criminal," convicted of murder of his pal, Herbert Cox, escaped from the county jail here today with another convicted murderer, Adams Ward, and Guido Spagnola, held on a robbery charge. The jail breakers were armed with revolvers evidently smuggled in by a friend.

The trio outside the jail held up a postoffice employee, and taking his automobile from him, escaped. The jail break was carefully timed for just before 7 o'clock when the guns had been taken from the guards just before changing shifts.

The jail breakers beat up the night turnkey, Henry Burrier, after having held up two inside guards.

ONLY THREE ESCAPED. Investigation later revealed that only three escaped. Purrier's injuries necessitated the taking of three stitches in his head.

Many times since Wilson's arrest, reports have come to the authorities that friends of the former evangelist were planning to deliver him, and it was current jail gossip that he never would permit himself to be taken to a state prison.

SPECTACULAR PRISONER. Wilson was one of the most spectacular prisoners in the country jail, having been charged by federal authorities after search for many months extending throughout the country and resulting from mail and store robberies estimated to reach over a million dollars. He was well known in Spagnola, known in the jail as "The Mouse," to Elmer Candon, one of the assistant inside jailers, to open the tank of the third floor to take some soiled laundry.

The jail breakers took the keys from Purrier and unlocked the two doors in front of the jail, and then locked them behind them. They ran east in Temple street to New High street. This is in the vicinity of the federal main office. They leaped into the automobile of a postoffice employee and sped away.

ALARM SPREAD. Glaze, breaking from the closet, reached a telephone and spread the general alarm. Police and scores of deputy sheriffs were called to join in the manhunt, prepared to shoot on sight on belief that the escaped trio are the most desperate fugitives they ever have been called on to catch.

Adam Ward, one of the jail breakers, was also known as Adam Blaszyk, and convicted here September 15 and sentenced to life imprisonment in connection with the murder of Nancy Wheelock, an aged woman, who was strangled to death.

Spagnola, the third of the jail breakers, was arrested in Seattle in connection with the robbery of a Standard Oil station here February 27. He was convicted and sentenced to from one to 10 years in San Quentin penitentiary.

GEORGIA CHOOSING WATSON'S SUCCESSOR

ATLANTA, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Georgia voters cast their ballots today in a special Democratic primary to nominate a successor to the late United States Senator Thomas F. Watson.

Each of the four candidates—Governor Thomas W. Hardwick, Seaborn Wright, John E. Cooper and Walter F. George—made last minute claims of the support of the "loyal 50,000 followers of Watson," the sage of McDuffie county, and expressed confidence in being nominated.

Today's primary was watched with interest by political observers for not only will it decide who shall be the state's next senator, but it also will determine whether the Watson bloc of voters, which is said to have exerted a controlling influence in Georgia politics for many years, will remain intact, or be split into factions.

Democratic nominations in Georgia are considered equivalent to election.

PASSENGERS FALL

C-2 Is First Dirigible to Make Trip Across Nation

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 17.—The army dirigible C-2 which recently completed a transcontinental flight and had reached San Antonio, on its way back to Washington, was burned early this morning while being taken from its hangar at Brooksfield preparatory to a flight over the city. Several of the crew were hurt, one seriously. The dirigible caught on the frame of the work of the hangar as it was being taken out.

GAS IS IGNITED. The bag split and the gas ignited. In the car of the dirigible at the time were members of the crew and several passengers. They escaped death but first reports said several were burned seriously and one had an arm broken.

Just how the accident occurred has not been learned. The big ship was being taken out of the hangar. The wind caught it and threw it up against one of the big doors at the entrance.

PASSENGERS WARNED. Passengers heard the hissing of the gas and a few moments later, the gas for some unknown reason became ignited, going up in a flash.

The bag burned and the car dropped to the ground throwing the passengers to the concrete floor.

Police ambulances and emergency cars and physicians rushed to the scene.

LIST OF INJURED. Those injured when the C-2 fell here today and burned are: Major John Thompson, headquarters, Fort Sam Houston, wrist broken.

Sergeant August D. Albrecht and Sergeant Harry Biles, both of the ship's crew, both have a fractured leg.

Ben Haines, newspaperman of San Antonio, broken arm and possible internal injury.

Major H. H. Straggs, commander of the craft was slightly hurt, one of his legs being wrenched. He is able to be up and is making a detailed report to commanding officers here.
